Gentry's Dog and Pony Show was a light to the young and old. Too much not be said in its praise. It was wonderful as well as instructive to see that infinite patience and perseverance could accomplish. It was a pleasure to serve also the kindly treatment the dogs and other animals must have received at the hands of their trainers, as shown by the evident delight they took in their work. This was true of all the animals except, possibly, the monkeys, they were too near human to enjoy anything that looked like work.

Rev. Mr. McCarty, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, has been in a peck of trouble during the past week on account of an erroneous statement in these columns. We local got him down as going to and returning from Jacksonville on Sunday, and the good old Presbyterian deacons have been after him for deserting the Sabbath. It was simply a case of the reporter being misinformed.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George W. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by all druggists.

A runaway horse attached to a wagon caused considerable excitement Monday during the parade. The horse was carelessly left standing in front of one of the stores, and became frightened at the elephants in the parade, and made a dash down the street. The consequences might have been very serious had it not been stopped in time, as the streets were crowded with women and little children viewing the parade. A colored man very courageously jumped in the wagon and stopped the animal.

An Honest Medicine for LaGrippe.
George W. Waite, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of and honest medicine." For sale by Wight & Bro. and all medicine dealers.

The sale was very successful, amounting to $25.15. There will be another sale next Saturday, which we trust will be equally as well patronized as the two last.

Summer Heat.—This is the season for bowel complaints. Green apples and cucumbers produce them, and Perry Davis' Pain-Killer cures them. To the troubled stomach it comes like a balm, the wind is assuaged, and the trouble ceases. Evers druggist in the land keeps Pain-Killer, and no one should be without it in his family. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c. and 50c.

Mr. Herman Schrader left on Sunday for his new home in Greenwood, S. C., where he will go into the manufacture of ice. It is with regret that we chronicle the change. Mr. Schrader has lived in Tallahassee nearly 25 years and has been prominent in the business and social life of the city, and it is no small loss to the community to lose such a good citizen. His integrity and industry, combined with a generous public spirit, will make him valued wherever he may live and Greenwood is to be congratulated on the acquisition of such a citizen. Mr. Schrader's family will join him in April. Tallahassee's loss is Greenwood's gain.

Remarkable Rescue.
Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill. makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at any drug store. Only 50 cents and $1.00, every bottle guaranteed.
